

February 19, 2010

U.S. Special Envoy General Scott Gration Trip Update

Today, Special Envoy Gration is traveling in the state of Southern Kordofan, where he is continuing discussions with local government officials on preparations for upcoming national elections and Comprehensive Peace Agreement (CPA) implementation.

Special Envoy Gration travels to Khartoum on Friday evening (February 19, 2010), where he will work with the Sudan People's Liberation Movement (SPLM) and the National Congress Party (NCP) to identify and address potential obstacles in advance of national elections in April.

#